Priscilla developed the Christian Counselors Collaborative (CCC) through the counseling ministry at Allegheny Center Alliance Church (ACAC). She received her Masters in Social Work at U Pitt and has worked in the mental health field since 1983, at Western Psychiatric Institute & Clinic, Magee-Women's Hospital, and ACAC. She is trained in family therapy, and specializes in trauma & abuse, family & relationship issues, anxiety & depression, and the application of Christian faith to the process of therapy.

A native of Western PA, Ron Cepek has worked in full-time church ministry for nearly fifteen years. After ten years working as a youth pastor he relocated to Seattle, WA in 2009 where he earned his Master's Degree in Counseling Psychology. Since returning to PA in 2014, Ron has spent a lot of his time doing pastoral care and counseling. Currently Ron serves here at First Presbyterian Church of Beaver working with young adults.

Joanne Koehler is the Executive Director of the Mental Health Association in Beaver County and has been involved in behavioral health advocacy efforts for over 17 years. Throughout these years, she has actively participated in various state, regional, and local initiatives to promote recovery-focused treatment services. Joanne lives in Brighton Township with her husband Chester. She can be contacted at jkoehler@mhac.org.

"Let's Talk About Mental Health" desires to bridge the gap by:

- Offering love and support to people in the name of Jesus Christ
- Connecting people with the mental health resources that they need
- Dispelling the stigma surrounding mental illness
- Providing education on a variety of mental health topics
